Safe harbour statement

We have included statements in this report which contain words or phrases such as "will", "aim", "will likely result", "believe", "expect", "will continue", "anticipate", "estimate", "intend", "plan", "contemplate", "seek to", "future", "objective", "goal", "project", "should", "will pursue" and similar expressions or variations of these expressions, that are "forward-looking statements". Actual results may differ materially from those suggested by the forward-looking statements due to certain risks or uncertainties associated with our expectations with respect to, but not limited to, our ability to implement our strategy successfully, the market acceptance of and demand for various banking services, our ability to realize all of the anticipated benefits of the Transaction, future levels of our non-performing/ impaired assets, our growth and expansion, the adequacy of our management of credit risks and our provision/allowance for credit and investment losses, technological changes, the adequacy of our information technology and telecommunication systems, including against cybersecurity threats, negative publicity, volatility in investment income, our ability to market new products, cash flow projections, the outcome of any legal, tax or regulatory proceedings in India and in other jurisdictions we are or become a party to, the future impact of new accounting standards, our ability to pay dividends, the impact of changes in banking regulations and other regulatory changes on us in India and other jurisdictions, our ability to roll over our short term funding sources and our exposure to market and operational risks. By their nature, certain of the market risk disclosures are only estimates and could be materially different from what may actually occur in the future. As a result, actual future gains, losses or impact on net income could materially differ from those that have been estimated.

In addition, other factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those estimated by the forward-looking statements contained in this document include, but are not limited to: geopolitical tensions between India and Pakistan, which have increased significantly following the deadly terrorist attack on tourists in Pahalgam in Jammu and Kashmir in April 2025, and have already impacted major treaties and diplomatic relations, with lingering risk of sudden escalation in military conflict between India and Pakistan; geopolitical tensions between India and China; general economic and political conditions; instability or uncertainty in India and the other countries which have an impact on our business activities or investments caused by any factor, including terrorist attacks in India, the United States or elsewhere, anti-terrorist or other attacks by the United States, a United States-led coalition or any other country, such as the joint strike launched by the United States and the United Kingdom in Yemen following the Houthis group's attack on international ships in the Red Sea; the ongoing war between Russia and Ukraine; the geopolitical conflict between Israel and Hamas, and the escalation in conflict between Israel and Iran, including U.S. intervention, which have complicated the geopolitical landscape; military armament or social unrest in any part of India; the monetary and interest rate policies of the RBI; natural calamities, pandemics, inflation, deflation, unanticipated turbulence in interest rates, foreign exchange rates, equity prices or other rates or prices; the performance of the financial markets in India and globally; compliance with and changes in Indian and foreign laws and regulations, including tax, accounting, banking regulations, insurance regulations and securities regulations; changes in competition and the pricing environment in India; regional or general changes in asset valuations; and uncertainties arising out of foreign trade and tariff policies followed by major global economies, such as the United States and China.
